Prophets Told About Jesus

ISAIAH 7:14; 9:6; 11:1-5; MICAH 5:2

In the Old Testament, God gave messages to prophets to tell the people of Israel. Sometimes the messages were warnings; other times the messages were instructions, or promises God was making for His people.

Hundreds of years before Jesus was born, prophets like Isaiah and Micah, told the people that God would send His Son to save people and forgive them of their sins. God made this plan from the very beginning to send Jesus as the Savior. The promises can be seen in the Old Testament Scriptures.

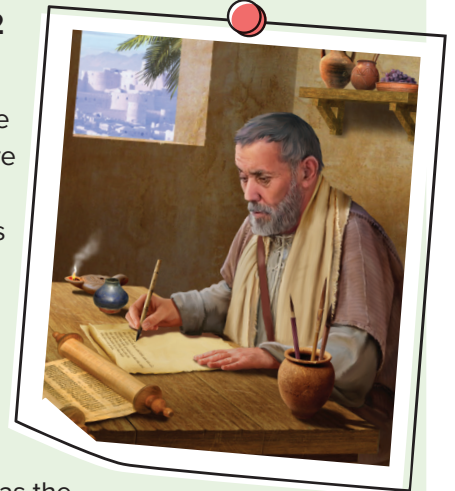

The prophet Isaiah told the people of Israel a virgin would have a Son, and name Him Immanuel. The name Immanuel means “God with us.” Isaiah said Jesus would be born from the family of Jesse, which was King David’s father. Isaiah explained how Jesus would be wise, understanding, and strong. He would be kind and care for people in trouble. Isaiah described Him as righteous, faithful, peaceful, and said the government would not like Him.

Another prophet named Micah told the message from God that Jesus would be born in the city of Bethlehem. He also said Jesus would come from a small place, but He would become the leader in Israel one day.

Each of the things Isaiah and Micah said about Jesus was true. God gave people the Bible so everyone could learn about His plan for Jesus to be born.
